

Civil/Site

Total Scope & Turn-Key Civil/Site Expertise

From streetscapes to industrial parks, Florence & Hutcheson is a single source of comprehensive Civil/Site services and know-how to help make your vision a reality. From Surveying, Feasibility Studies, Planning & Zoning, Traffic Studies/Analysis and Control Plans to full Site Design, Utility Coordination, Stormwater Inspection and Management (CEPSCI), we have all the capabilities in-house to progress a land development project from pre-development site investigations to site design and completion.

Experienced F&H roadway, transportation and structural engineers, surveyors, environmental planners, water resources engineers, hydrologists, geotechnical engineers, and construction engineering and project management specialists collaborate to provide essential and innovative services, including:

- Surveying
- Feasibility Studies
- Planning & Zoning
- Traffic Studies/Analysis & Control Plans
- Environmental Assessments & Permitting
- Site Design
- Utility Design & Coordination
- Stormwater Inspection & Management (CEPSCI)
- Erosion & Sediment Pollution Control Design

The scope of our services is reflected in the variety of clients we serve and the range of projects recently completed:

F&H clients include:

- Government Agencies
- Contractors
- Real Estate Developers
- Architects
- Industries
- Planners

F&H projects include:

- Streetscapes
- Commercial & Mixed-use Land Development
- Convention Centers
- Urban Renewal Programs
- Industrial Parks
- Retail Development
- Education & Health Care Facilities
- PUDs & Multi-lot Residential Development
- Parks & Recreational Facilities

F&H Civil/Site specialists can help make your vision a reality.

